

never again :: for anyone

warsaw : 1944

gaza : 2009

'My great lesson from Auschwitz is: whoever wants to dehumanise any other, must first be dehumanised himself. The oppressors are no longer really human whatever uniform they wear.' - Hajo Meyer

Join the Scottish Palestine Solidarity Campaign and the International Jewish Anti-Zionist Network for a UK tour with

Hajo Meyer :: Haidar Eid

survived Auschwitz

is surviving Gaza

both are united in a commitment to Palestinian freedom

January 2010 :: Scotland, England and Ireland

never again :: for anyone

a UK tour with

Dr. Hajo G. Meyer ::

was born in 1924 in Bielefeld, Germany. In 1944, after a year in the underground, he was caught and subsequently survived 10 months at Auschwitz. An IJAN member, Dr. Meyer is on the board of the Dutch "A Different Jewish Voice", of European Jews for a Just Peace. He is the author of three books on Judaism, Holocaust and Zionism.

:: Dr. Haidar Eid

is a refugee whose parents were expelled from the Zarnouqa village in 1948. Dr. Eid is a member of the PACBI Steering Committee and a co-founder of the One Democratic State Group. He currently lives in Gaza, where he is an Associate Professor of Cultural Studies at Al-Aqsa University.

tour schedule

Glasgow : 21.1.10	::	26.1.10	: London
Dundee : 22.1.10	::	27.1.10	: London
Edinburgh : 23.1.10	::	28.1.10	: London
Sheffield : 24.1.10	::	29.1.10	: Belfast
Liverpool : 25.1.10	::	30.1.10	: Dublin

for full schedule go to www.ijsn.net/NeverAgain or www.scottishpsc.org.uk

for more information or to sponsor one of these events, please contact us: uk@ijsn.net or campaign@scottishpsc.org.uk

'Then they came for me - and there was no one left to speak out for me.'

- Pastor Martin Niemöller

